Jeffrey Wong is a self-taught hobbyist turned professional photographer, rooted with deep knowledge and passion for photography. He has been a commercial photographer for over 15 years, with clients including VISA, UOB and Asian Food Channel. Developing a rich portfolio over the years, Jeffrey received numerous awards from local and international photography competitions.

He received PSS Associateship (APSS) in 2005 and PSS Fellowship (FPSS) in 2019 from The Photographic Society of Singapore (PSS) with his set of black and white fine art architectural photos. He is currently a photography instructor at PSS and also volunteers his time teaching photography to youths at-risk as part of the PSS SPARK Programme.

Jeffery continues to curate his highest standard of original works. 50 of his photos were accredited by 1X and published on their website gallery while 30 have been awarded, approved by the head curators and displayed directly on the front page of 1x.com

His photos are recognized internationally as they are handpicked by a team of professional gallery curators from well-known institutions such as Sotheby's, Tate Modern Art, and others.

In 2022, Jeffrey was part of a team from PSS who photographed the winners of The President's Volunteerism & Philanthropy Awards and his photos were exhibited at The Istana.

Jeffrey also led the team from PSS who represented Singapore and won the Gold Medal in the 35th FIAP Black and White Biennial 2022 in Oman, with their collection of Black & White Fine Art Architecture photographs called "Concrete Wonders". This collection and his photos was showcased in The Magic of Black & White Exhibition in 2023.

Most recently, Jeffrey's photographs were presented in a solo exhibition at the Pingyao International Photography Festival, one of the largest photography festivals in the world.

Jeffrey believes in constantly learning and strives to reinvent his photography works, to enrich his profile professionally and to sharpen his skills. His goal is to transform his vision into stunning memories.
