Joohn joined the SAFRA Photographic Club after his National Service and picked up Black & White, and Colour Photography. At the same time, he developed an interest and honed his Darkroom Techniques there. Due to his busy schedule with work and family commitments, he had to give up photography.

In 2019, backed with his first digital camera he started learning everything from scratch again. During this time, he came to know the famous photographer Fan Ho, whose photos inspired him. He started his street photography journey capturing people from different situations and life.

Joohn was awarded the Distinction title of ASPS by Society of Photographers Singapore after submitting a series of Chinese Street Photography shots in Bangkok Chinatown.

He attended the Black & White Fine Art Architecture course conducted by Jeffrey Wong at PSS and joined the society as a life member.

In 2022, PSS invited him to cover the President's Volunteerism and Philanthropy Awards and his work was part of an exhibition displayed at the Istana.

Joohn's photos have been exhibited in Singapore and the Kuala Lumpur Photography Festival.

Joohn was also part of the team from The Photographic Society of Singapore who represented Singapore and won the Gold Medal in the 35th FIAP Black and White Biennial 2022 in Oman, with their series of Black & White Fine Art Architecture photographs called "Concrete Wonders".

His photos have been showcased in The Magic of Black & White Exhibition in 2023.

Walking down the streets capturing shots of what people are doing inspires him to focus his photography more on people and cultural events. Currently, he is working as an Event Photographer to sustain his hobby and passion.
